The Lewis Carroll Society of North America

Lunch: Tulio Ristorante, 1100 Fifth St. (206) 624-5500. For $30, including tax, tip, and soft drink, you will have a selection of three entrees, including one vegetarian entree. Menu selection will be at the restaurant. Alcoholic beverages are not included; you must pay for them at time of ordering.

Hotel: We have arranged for a block of rooms at a special rate of $154 per night at the Paramount Hotel, 724 Pine Street. To obtain this rate, you must book by SEPTEMBER 20. Request the LCSNA rate (which is available on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights, Oct. 12 – 14) by citing Group Code PHS-GF122. Register by calling (800) 663-1144 or by visiting www.paramounthotelseattle.com.

The hotel is about 8 blocks (0.6 miles) from the Seattle Public Library. It is a pleasant walk, or there is a free bus that circles the downtown loop. Please allow enough time to reach SPL by 10 a.m. sharp.

Additional events (late-breaking news will be posted on LewisCarroll.org)

- The Maxine Schaefer Children's Outreach Fund will sponsor a dramatic reading and book giveaway. Please check LewisCarroll.org for venue.
- The Board of Directors meeting will take place on Friday evening from 6 – 8 p.m. in the Cascade Room at the Paramount Hotel.
- Friday Night Dinner and Talk: Anne Bromer, co-owner of Bromer Books in Boston, will speak on her new work, Miniature Books: 4000 Years of Tiny Treasures. Reservations are required. For more information, see: <http://www.seattlebookfair.com/2007/dinner2007.htm>.
The Society has been advised that all are welcome.
- Saturday Night Poetry and Live Music! Hear excerpts from Seattle poet Rebecca Loudon's libretto from the opera Red Queen as part of a musical and spoken-word performance of Carroll-inspired poetry. Have a favorite poem you can recite? Come to participate—or just to listen. 7:30 p.m. Please check LewisCarroll.org for venue.
- Seattle Antiquarian Book Fair and Book Arts Show, Seattle Center Pavilion. Don't discard your LCSNA meeting nametag! It is good for free admission to the book fair on Sunday (11 a.m. – 4 p.m.), courtesy of Louis Collins Books. See www.seattlebookfair.com.

Remember, much of Seattle is vertical. Wear comfortable shoes.
